

ESOL – Speaking and Listening for Everyday Life

This module is designed to help learners to gain confidence in speaking by learning and practising words, phrases and common grammatical forms to support them to communicate better in everyday life. Specifically, they will be able to speak about things they do in every life, communicate more effectively in everyday situations, be able to make arrangements or extend social invitations. Higher level learners may also learn to use a range of tenses to speak about things they have done or intend to...
